

Year 4 Summer 2: How and why do people mark the significant events in life?

Wonderful words

Significant: having a special meaning, something that is very important

Journey: a person's experience of changing or travelling from one point to another point

Baptism: a ceremony that welcomes someone into the Christian church

Commitment: a strong belief in something and a promise to do something

Marriage: a legal union between two people

Bar Mitzvah: a joining ceremony when a Jewish boy takes on the responsibilities of his religion.

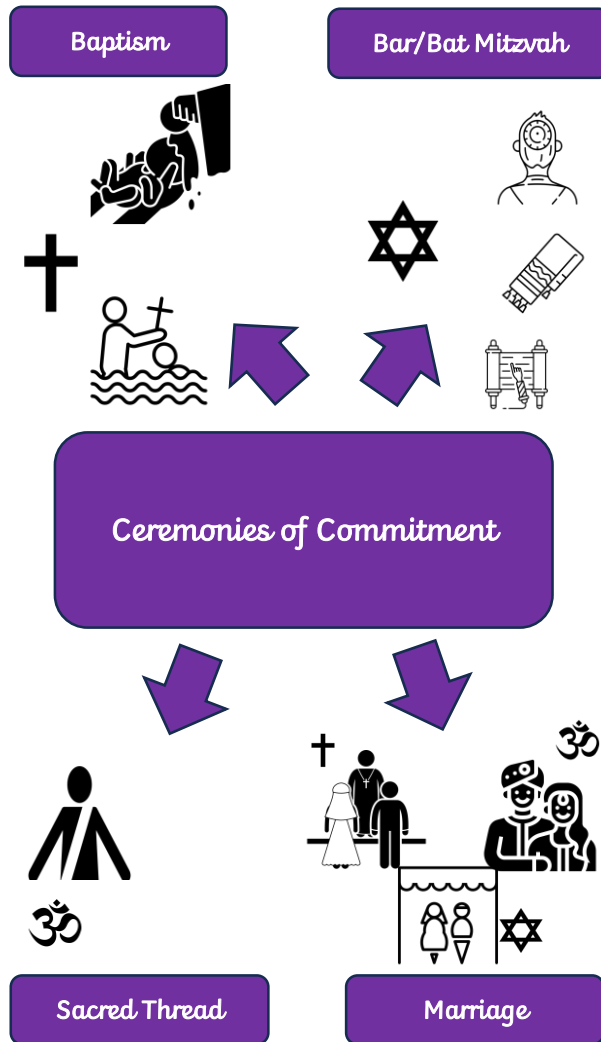

Bat Mitzvah: a joining ceremony when a Jewish girl takes on the responsibilities of her religion.

Ceremony: a formal event linked to something special

Wedding: a ceremony when a couple make promises to be married and promises to God

Sacred Thread: a ceremony when a Hindu is ready to take responsibility for their religious life.

So how does it all work?

Important information

Many religious worldviews will hold a ceremony to celebrate significant points in the religious journey a person is talking. These take place at various points in a person's life and help to show their commitment to their religion.

Baptism is an important ceremony in Christianity as it celebrates someone becoming a member of the Christian community. This can happen for babies or for older people when they wish to join the Church.

At the age of thirteen many Jewish boys will have a Bar Mitzvah and many girls at the age of twelve will have a Bat Mitzvah. This ceremony shows they have reached the part of their journey to take responsibility for their religious life.

Many Hindu boys and some Hindu girls will have a Sacred Thread ceremony which means they are taking responsibility for their religious life as well.

Many religious people will choose to mark their marriage with a religious wedding ceremony to represent the next stage in their lives and to show commitment to their married partner.
